

CHECKLIST FOR WRITING OF CRITIQUES FOR BRACHYCEPHALIC BREEDS

Valid for the breeds

Boston Terrier

Bulldog

French Bulldog

Pug

Pekingese

It is especially important to write detailed critiques of the above mentioned breeds. This is done by describing in the written critique, among other things, the following:

- Breathing, standing and after being moved
- Eyes: size, eye lids, clearness, tear flow
- Length and width of muzzle
- Shape of nose wrinkle, if any
- Shape of nostrils
- Length and shape of neck
- Length of sternal bone and shape of ribcage
- Weight
- Shape of tail (applies for Bulldogs, French Bulldogs & Boston Terrier)
