

Sveriges Hundungdom greet you and your dog warmly welcome to the Handling Competitions at Stockholm Dog Fair on 9 December!

The competitions are arranged in conjunction with the Swedish Kennel Club's international exhibition in the A-hall at the Stockholm Fair, Älvsjö. Together, more than 6500 dogs participate throughout the weekend. We hope we can invite you to a lovely weekend!

In this e-mail you will find your number tag. It is, along with the required vaccination certificate, your and your dog's admission ticket.

The veterinary inspection is open at 07.00 - 11.00 and is located at both the main entrance and the east entrance. In addition to the inspection, there is also an entrance for visitors. Be prepared for long queues!

NOTE! The veterinary inspection closes at 11:00. Before that, you and your dog must have passed to participate in the competitions. Only the dogs participating in the competitions and those who are pre-registered may enter the fair.

Do not forget the dog's vaccination certificate! Vaccination control is done immediately prior to the inspection. We remind you that you as a contestant are responsible for the dog having received prescribed vaccinations.

Competition rules. All competitions are conducted according to official rules and you as a contestant must be aware of these as well as the national doping rules.

Directions: By car: from all Stockholm's roads there is a road sign "Mässan" and "Älvsjö". By commuter train; station "Älvsjö station", from there it is a 5-minute walk to the fair.
